

Vicki Grassman, Mental Health Professional

Her Legacy: Improving the health and wellness of the community through speaking for those with behavioral health issues

Vicki Grassman, a licensed clinical social worker, heads Summit Stone Health Partners, a facility which serves those who have issues in behavioral health. As Chief Operating Officer she has devoted more than 20 years to speaking for the voiceless, people who have mental health needs and may not have the means to address them.

With her dedication and untiring advocacy, she is an inspiration to others and a tireless advocate for those in need of mental health services. A nonprofit Larimer County facility, Summit Stone Health Partners provides affordable crisis intervention, substance abuse treatment, and individual and group therapy.

Vicki is a role model of compassion and caring for women who seek careers in the helping professions.
